

NIAGARA FALLS PUBLIC LIBRARY	DATE EFFECTED: January 1, 2010	ACCESSIBILITY POLICY
	DATE REVISED: September 20, 2023
Associated Policies: Code of Conduct

PURPOSE

Niagara Falls Public Library is committed to ensuring equal access and participation for people with disabilities. We are committed to treating people with disabilities in a way that allows them to maintain their dignity and independence. We believe in integration, and we are committed to meeting the needs of people with disabilities in a timely manner. We will do so by removing and preventing barriers to accessibility and by meeting our accessibility requirements under Ontario's accessibility laws.

SCOPE

This Policy is made pursuant to the requirements of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 ("AODA") and the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation ("IAS Regulation") of the AODA and addresses how the Library will achieve accessibility.

DEFINITIONS

For purpose of this Policy, "disability" is defined as follows:

- any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is caused by bodily injury, birth defect or illness and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes diabetes mellitus, epilepsy, a brain injury, any degree of paralysis, amputation, lack of physical coordination, blindness or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impairment, muteness or speech impediment, or physical reliance on a guide dog or other animal or on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device,
- a condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability,
- a learning disability, or a dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in understanding or using symbols or spoken language,
- a mental disorder, or
- an injury or disability for which benefits were claimed or received under the insurance plan established under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997.

"Library Premises" means premises owned and operated, or operated by the Niagara Falls Public Library.

"Library Services" means what the Library does for, or offers to, the public in an effort to meet a defined set of community needs.

POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of the Niagara Falls Public Library that the Library is committed to providing quality Library services that are accessible to all persons who wish to obtain and use Library services.

1. Guiding Principles

1.1. Self-service kiosks

The Library shall have regard to the accessibility for persons with disabilities when designing, procuring or acquiring self-service kiosks. “Kiosk” means an interactive electronic terminal, including a point-of-sale device, intended for public use that allows users to access one or more services or products or both.

1.2. Training

The Library provides training to all its employees, volunteers, persons who participate in developing its policies and all other persons who provide goods, services or facilities on behalf of the Library. The training shall be: (a) on the requirements of the IAS Regulation and the Human Rights Code as it relates to persons with disabilities; (b) appropriate to the duties of the employees, volunteers and other persons; (c) provided as soon as practicable, on an ongoing basis and as necessary to comply with all statutory requirements.

1.3. Information and Communication Standards

1.3.1. Upon request, and in accordance with the compliance schedule set out in the IAS Regulation, the Library will provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication support for persons with disabilities in a timely manner and at a cost that is not greater than the cost charged to other persons, if any. The Library will consult with the person making the request to determine the suitability of an accessible format or communication support and notify the public about the availability of these formats and supports. Niagara Falls Public Library provides access to or arranges for the provision of access to accessible materials where they exist. We will provide information in accessible format or with appropriate communication support upon request.

1.3.2. In accordance with the requirements of the IAS Regulation, the Library ensures that its feedback processes are accessible to persons with disabilities by providing or arranging for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports, upon request. We will notify the public of the availability of accessible formats and communication support including by posting this information on <https://www.nflibrary.ca/> . Further information about our feedback process is available at the end of this Policy.

1.3.3. Where the Library prepares emergency procedures, plans or public safety information and makes such information available to the public, it shall provide the information in an accessible format or with appropriate communication supports, as soon as practicable, upon request.

1.4. Employment Standards

The Niagara Falls Public Library is committed to ensuring that its employment practices are in compliance with the AODA, IAS Regulation and the Ontario Human Rights Code.

1.4.1. Accommodations for applicants (including existing employees) with disabilities are available in the Library’s recruitment processes.

The Library shall notify applicants when they are individually selected to participate in an assessment or selection process that accommodations, including Accessible Formats and Communication Supports, are available upon request in relation to the materials or processes to be used. If a selected applicant requests an accommodation, the Library will consult with the applicant and provide or arrange for the provision of a suitable accommodation in a manner that takes into account the applicant’s accessibility needs due to a disability.

The Library shall notify successful applicants of its policies for accommodating employees with disabilities when making offers of employment.

The Library shall also notify employees of its policies which support employees with disabilities, including but not limited to policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to a disability.

- 1.4.2. Where an employee with a disability requests it, the Library will consult with the employee to provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication support for information that is (a) needed in order to perform the employee's job and (b) generally available to employees in the workplace.
- 1.4.3. The Library shall take into account the accessibility needs of employees when using performance management processes, providing career development and advancement, and using redeployment.
- 1.4.4. The Niagara Falls Public Library provides individualized workplace emergency response information to employees who have a disability if the disability is such that the individualized information is necessary and the employer is aware of the need for accommodation. The Library provides this information as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the need for accommodation.

If an employee who receives individualized workplace emergency response information requires assistance and provided that the employee's consent is obtained, the Library will provide the workplace emergency response information to the person designated by the employer to provide assistance to the employee.

The Library reviews the individualized workplace emergency response information in the following circumstances: when the employee moves to a different location in the organization, when overall accommodation needs or plans are reviewed, and when it reviews its general emergency response policies.

1.5. Accessibility Standards for our Libraries

The Niagara Falls Public Library is committed to designing our Libraries free from barriers and ensuring they are accessible to all persons we serve. The Library will comply with the Design of Public Spaces Standards with respect to public spaces that are newly constructed or redeveloped in accordance with the requirements of the IAS Regulation.

1.6. References

- Accessible Customer Service Policy
- Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005
- Regulation 191/11 made under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (Integrated Accessibility Standards).

1.7. Copies

Upon request, all of our policies can be made available in an accessible format and we can provide or arrange to provide communication supports as necessary.

1.8. Feedback and Questions

If you have any questions about this Policy or our accessibility initiatives, please let us know. Feedback on this Policy and the Library's accessibility measures is welcome. Feedback can be provided through various means and in various forms. If you have questions, concerns or comments, please contact your manager. All feedback received will be reviewed within a reasonable time period and the Library will take all appropriate steps to address any issues raised. All complaints will be processed in accordance with the Library's complaints process.

2. Customer Service Policy

The Niagara Falls Public Library is committed to excellence in serving all customers, including people with disabilities. Our accessible customer service policies are consistent with the principles of independence, dignity, integration and equality of opportunity for people with disabilities. We will do so by removing and preventing barriers to accessibility and by meeting our accessibility requirements under Ontario's accessibility laws and our obligations under the Human Rights Code.

2.1. Assistive Devices

People with disabilities may use their personal assistive devices when accessing our services, programs or Library facilities.

In cases where the assistive device presents a significant and unavoidable health or safety concern or may not be permitted for other reasons, other measures will be used to ensure the person with a disability can access our services, programs or Library facilities.

We will ensure that our staff are trained and familiar with various assistive devices we have on site or that we provide that may be used by customers with disabilities while accessing our services, programs or Library facilities.

2.2. Communication

We will communicate with people with disabilities in ways that take into account their disability. We will work with the person with a disability to determine what method of communication works for them.

2.3. Service Animals

We welcome people with disabilities and their service animals. Service animals are allowed on the part of our premises which are open to the public. When we cannot easily identify whether an animal is a service animal, our staff may ask the person to provide documentation from a regulated health professional that confirms the person needs the service animal for reasons relating to their disability. A regulated health professional is defined as a member of one of the following colleges:

- College of Audiologists and Speech-Language Pathologists of Ontario
- College of Chiropractors of Ontario • College of Nurses of Ontario
- College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario
- College of Optometrists of Ontario
- College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario
- College of Physiotherapists of Ontario
- College of Psychologists of Ontario
- College of Registered Psychotherapists and Registered Mental Health Therapists of Ontario

If service animals are prohibited by another law, we will ensure the customer with disabilities can access our services, programs, or facilities by explaining why the animal is excluded and discussing with the customer another way of providing goods, services or facilities.

2.4. Support Persons

A person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person will be allowed to have that person accompany them on our premises.

In certain cases, we might require a person with a disability to be accompanied by a support person for the health or safety reasons of the person with a disability or others on the premises.

2.5. Notice of Temporary Disruption

In the event of a planned or unexpected disruption to services or facilities for customers with disabilities, we will notify customers promptly. This clearly posted notice will include information about the reason for the disruption, its anticipated length of time, and a description of alternative facilities or services, if available.

Services and facilities include: Library.

The notice will be made publicly available as follows: on the NFPL website and phone system, and on the premises.

2.6. Training

The Library will provide accessible customer service training to all employees and volunteers, any person involved in developing our policies and any person who provides goods, services or facilities to customers on the Library's behalf.

The training will encompass:

- Purpose of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 and the requirements of the customer service standard;
- The Library's policies related to the customer service standard;
- How to interact and communicate with people with various types of disabilities;
- How to interact with people with disabilities who use an assistive device or require the assistance of a service animal or support person;
- How to use the equipment or devices available on-site or otherwise that may help with providing goods, services or facilities to people with disabilities; and
- What to do if a person with a disability is having difficulty accessing the Library's services, programs, or facilities.

Staff will be trained on accessible customer service as part of their training when they are first hired and again if changes are made to our accessible customer service policy.

2.7. Feedback Process

We welcome feedback. Customers who wish to provide feedback on the way the Library provides goods, services or facilities to people with disabilities can provide feedback in the following way(s):

In-person at: 4848 VICTORIA AVE, NIAGARA FALLS, ON L2E 4C5, Canada

By telephone by calling: 905.356.8080

By email to: Refer to the Accessibility link on our organization's website.

By mail to: Management

The Library will make sure our feedback process is accessible to people with disabilities by providing or arranging for accessible formats and communication supports, on request.

All feedback received will be reviewed within a reasonable time period and the Library will take all appropriate steps to address any issues raised. All complaints will be processed in accordance with the Library's complaints process.

2.8. Documents

The Library will provide this document in an accessible format or with communication support, on request. We will consult with the person making the request to determine the suitability of the format or communication support. We will provide the accessible format in a timely manner and at no additional cost.

Any policies of the Library that do not respect and promote the principles of dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity for people with disabilities will be modified or removed.

3. Review of the Policy

This Policy will be fully reviewed and updated as necessary at least every five years and posted on our website. This Policy will be reviewed and may be amended periodically based on the needs and experiences of the Niagara Falls Public Library.
